

The Mar Menor Resort in Murcia is home to several restaurants, meaning holidaymakers will be spoiled for choice when it comes to dining during their stay.

Guests keen to sample global cuisine can head to Hiroko, which specialises in Japanese, Chinese, Thai and Indian food. Some of the dishes diners can enjoy here include sushi, tempura, noodles and tasty glazed duck.

Elsewhere, holidaymakers looking for a relaxed venue for their evening meal can book a table at Al Fresco, which is situated beside the main swimming pool.

The establishment is open daily between Easter and October, serving BBQ favourites and refreshing cocktails, as well as fresh seafood and Mediterranean dishes.

Other places where guests can enjoy a bite to eat include Nomad, which serves up Spanish and Moroccan cuisine and the Clover Irish Golf Tavern, which is the perfect place to enjoy a casual drink and spot of lunch.
